

SLOAN WILL STAY IN ENGLAND.

Feeling Has Been Stirred Up Against American Jockeys.

TOD'S TEMPER IS RUFFLED.

Prince of Wales Could Not Stand Against the Sentiment and Discharged the Little Jockey.

New York, Nov. 1.—Tod Sloan's temper is seriously ruffled by the loss of his engagement with the Prince of Wales, says a London dispatch to the World.

"Have you been notified that you will not be retained by the Prince of Wales," the jockey was asked.

"No, but I guess it's true all the same," was Sloan's reply. "The feeling that has been stirred up against American jockeys here by some of the sports and sporting papers is the worst I ever knew. The prince could not stand against it, I suppose, and I say nothing against him."

"Do you intend to give up racing here?"

"I don't intend to do anything of the kind. I have still as many offers to ride from the best owners as I want. I ride fair, do my best every time and am not beaten yet. You can tell them that in New York."

Marsh, the Prince of Wales' trainer, furnished information before it was communicated to Sloan and the prince, it is said, has rebuked him for it. Despite Sloan's confidence in himself, the cancelling of the Prince of Wales' engagement is considered the worst blow he has received, as other owners will surely follow suit.

SOMETHING ABOUT PUNTING.

"Who is the Best?"—It is an Annual Question.

"Who is the best punter on the gridiron this fall?" asks the New York Sun. This is an annual question. Last year it was McBride of Yale, who led all others, with plenty to spare. With McBride out of it, the field has been left open, with many competitors for first honors. So far, the most sensational punter is Graves, the Pennsylvania Quaker. In all of the games, this young man has shown remarkable proficiency.

Graves, a Columbia freshman, is fifty pounds, five feet and seven inches tall, and all of his kicks were well placed and quickly made. Hare and John Gardner, also, of the Pennsylvania team, have been punting well, but Graves has excelled them to a marked degree. Harvard has three first class punters in Ellis, Daly and Halliwell.

The latter did the kicking last season, but after McBride he was outclassed. Ellis has shown an ability to get in long kicks this fall and Daly is nearly as good, so that Halliwell in all probability will not be used. Yale's best punter is Sharpe, but he needs to be developed. He is a phenomenal leg kicker. At Princeton, Mattie and Hodgman are excellent punters, but not in the class with Wheeler of a year ago. Not one of these men, however, has reached the standard set by Brooks of Pennsylvania, Butterworth of Yale, Ames of Princeton, Houghton of Harvard and Herschberger of the University of Chicago.

SAILOR SHARPEY MAD.

Tom O'Rourke Said that Tom Was a Quitter.

Thomas Sharpey, the sailor pugilist, is very much wrought up over the accusations made by his former manager, Tom O'Rourke, to the effect that he was a quitter and would not agree to meet Walcott because he was afraid to face the colored man in the ring.

Sharpey emphatically denies the statement issued by O'Rourke, and says the latter is only trying to get even with him because he was afraid to renew his contract, which expired last September, and be a party to crooked deals which O'Rourke contemplated.

"When O'Rourke says I quit with Fitzsimmons," he lied," said Sharpey. "I never quit in my life. All my battles have been on the level, but if O'Rourke had his way, I might have been a good fighter by this time."

After I was defeated by Jeffries O'Rourke agreed to get on another match for me with the champion, providing I would quit in the third round. That is the kind of a manager he is. I would not consent to any such proposition, and he said I was a 'good thing,' because I refused to fool the public. He showed me where we could make plenty of money by the deal, but I told him that I had too much honor to resort to such methods."

"I was glad to get away from O'Rourke's management, and no one knows it better than he does. Since my contract expired he has been after me repeatedly."

As to Walcott, I will never meet him in the ring. He is not in my class, and I am negroes, especially when they have the reputation of quitters."

Sharpey said that he had received an offer of $6 per cent from Lou Houseman of Chicago to fight Peter Mahan on November 15th. Sharpey will not accept the offer, as he wants 65 per cent of the receipts and the time expended to the middle of December.

ANXIOUS FOR A GAME.

Local Footballists Eager to See Christians and High School Teams Meet.

Considerable interest is being stirred up in football circles over the attitude taken by the High School and the Y. M. C. A. teams. Ever since the football season opened there has been a longing among supporters of the game to witness a contest between the two teams.

The challenge issued yesterday by Captain Nels Margretts and the reply of Coach Callahan, Manager McFadden and Prof. Eaton of the High School, has only intensified the desire.

In speaking of the present difficulty, a man prominent in local sporting circles, said today: "It is to be regretted that any ill feeling whatever should have arisen between the two organizations and it is hoped that it will soon be settled amicably and for all time, for the good of the sport in this city. It seems to me that some arrangements could be made to pull off a game between the two teams. It would certainly draw a larger crowd than a contest between any of the other local teams, or a local team, and one from any of the adjacent States."

Neither team is any too well equipped for the contest, but it has been made out of one game to furnish the necessary articles and leave a good surplus to assist in entertaining visiting teams. It is true that the Y. M. C. A. team has the advantage in weight, but the High School are not so slow, and would certainly put up a warm game. The Y. M. C. A. is willing to accept any offer, while the High School may select so that there would be absolutely no chance for unfair playing."

Sporting Notes.

The Y. M. C. A. has not closed with any team for a game for next Saturday. The team will very likely line up with the University on the exposition gridiron on that day for a practice game.

Coach Callahan of the High School team left last night for a two weeks' trip to the East. While away Mr. Callahan will look into football matters and when he returns will doubtless have many new plays for the boys.

The Y. M. C. A. team will have a two hours' practice in the gymnasium this evening and go through important electrical work. It is expected that quite a large crowd will be present to watch the close of the season.

J. B. Dunn, formerly of the D. W. C. football team, who has been working for the East on important business, Dunn was elected to the position of manager of the team and they feel their loss keenly. Mr. Dunn may not return before the close of the season.

Just now the eye of football enthusiasts is focused upon the big game to be played at the University of Wyoming and the Y. M. C. A. heavyweights. The local team is working hard realizing that it will have to play some of the best teams in the country for a good swift game.

That "Kid" McCoy is certainly in Ireland, as was told in the Evening Journal a week ago, was confirmed last evening, when his brother, Homer Selby, informed an Evening Journal man that he had heard from Norman, the "Kid." The latter wrote while still on the steamer Teutonic, and was unable to say what he would do when he reached the other side. The possible trip to South Africa for mining purposes, which has since been mentioned, was not referred to. Selby said he could not say what his brother would do, but that he would not be surprised if the "Kid" came back to New York in a short time. McCoy has not yet sold his property in New York, but Homer Selby said last night that he expected to have the control of his brother's establishment at Broadway and Fortieth street on May 1st next.

THE SMALL BOY ABROAD.

Celebrates Halloween With Due Solemnity—Little Boys Restore Gates.

It was distinctly remembered by hundreds of boys in this city last night that it was Halloween and knowing what the occasion demanded of them they lived up to their obligations admirably. That is the view the small boy takes of it. The man whose front gates and one section of fence are gone looks at it in another way, and incidentally speaks of it in other language. From time immemorial the small boy has flourished on Halloween and all the expiatives of the irate old gentleman with the missing gate have never and will perhaps never suppress the fact that out of the many bands of little marauders that stalked abroad last night seizing upon anything that was portable, there was another band of five young gentlemen between the ages of 5 and 10, whose names deserve mention here. Instead of being out for mischief they were engaged in restoring gates and other property which had been transported into another part of the town. The captain of this little band of Trojans was Walter Hunsd, and his brave confederates were Stephen Skilbourn, Crosses Howe, Chauncey White and Harold Howe. Upon restoring a gate or a section of fence they would go to the door and knock. When the head of the house came they would salute him, inform him in terse businesslike style, that they had rescued his gate from the top of a telephone pole, and without giving the man time to get it clear in his head whether he was being made fun of or not they would scamper away after another gate. These little fellows live in the Seventeenth ward, and they walked direct into the hearts of many an old person's heart last night, who was too feeble to go after stolen property that an impetuous custom has licensed.

TO REMOVE GREENWALD.

Chairman Wilson Charges Registrar With Unfairness—Cites Instances.

Chairman Wilson, of the Democratic county committee, has forwarded the following letter to the board of county commissioners, petitioning for the removal of J. J. Greenwald as registration agent in the Fifty-second district:

"Gentlemen:—The undersigned respectfully represents that he is chairman of the county committee of the Democratic party, and as such chairman is conducting a campaign in said county, that J. J. Greenwald is the registration officer for the Fifty-second district therein; that since he was appointed as such registration officer and within the last few days, he has made several wagons on the result of the election in this county; that in one case he has put the sum of $100 against the sum of $75 that William McKinley will carry Salt Lake City, and that the said money was placed in the hands of Ezra Thompson of this city as stakeholder. Petitioner further represents that during the registration of voters on this, the 31st day of October 1900, the said Greenwald has been partial, unfair and unjust in the performance of his duties, and that he refused registration to Democrats upon unreasonable and unjust qualifications. The said J. J. Greenwald being financially interested in the outcome of the election, is no longer a fit person to act as the said registrar. Your petitioner therefore prays that J. J. Greenwald be removed from the office of registration agent of said Fifty-second district at once, and that some one else be appointed in his place."

The commissioners will pass upon the matter next Friday morning.

THE HUNGARIAN THRONE.

Stormy Scene in the Parliament Over Ferdinand's Morganatic Wife.

Budapest, Oct. 31.—A stormy debate is proceeding in the lower house of the Hungarian parliament on Archduke Ferdinand, renouncing claim to the Hungarian throne in behalf of the issue of his morganatic marriage. Emperor Francis Joseph has insisted upon the right of Countess Cholek to become empress and empress may be made out of one game to furnish the necessary articles and leave a good surplus to assist in entertaining visiting teams. It is true that the Y. M. C. A. team has the advantage in weight, but the High School are not so slow, and would certainly put up a warm game. The Y. M. C. A. is willing to accept any offer, while the High School may select so that there would be absolutely no chance for unfair playing."

Immediately there rose a tremendous tumult with deafening cries of "She shall be queen!" This explanation he followed with a strong appeal to the chamber to pass the bill confirming the renunciation.

Young Man After Pullman Millions.

New York, Oct. 31.—The young man who for several years annoyed the Pullmans in Chicago by demanding money of them and calling himself Gustave Pullman, was arrested here today. This afternoon he called at the hotel where young George and Sanger Pullman are living and sent his card up to the former.

Pullman had him ejected, and he returned and demanded $500. He was again put out, and on his third visit was arrested. After being arraigned in police court he was taken to the insane pavilion at Bellevue hospital for observation.

Gold from Transvaal Seized.

Hamburg, Oct. 31.—The provincial court has laid an embargo upon bar gold to the value of 2,500,000 marks, which arrived at Cuxhaven today on the Imperial mail steamer Bunderstark from Delagoa bay. This step was taken it is alleged, for the purpose of reimbursing insurance companies here for great wealth by the Transvaal government during the war. The Hamburgische Boersen Halle, however, denies a rumor that the gold was shipped by Mr. Kruger.

VANDALISM MUST CEASE.

Police Warn Offenders that They Will be Severely Dealt With Unless They Reform.

Malignant Mischief Becoming Too Common to Put Up With Longer—Curfew Ordinance Will be Enforced.

Vandalism among boys ranging from 10 to 16 years of age seems to be getting very prevalent. For some time past electric lights along the streets have been broken, the glass in front of fire alarm boxes broken, petty stealing and such malicious mischief has been going on and the perpetrators have escaped punishment either from the city officials or from their parents or guardians, but the complaints have been coming to the police station too often of late, and the officers are determined to punish such boys if apprehended unless their parents will take them under control. The parents of such children are notified of their actions, and if they cannot control their children the police officers have determined the best place for such unruly boys will be in the State reform school, where they will go unless such malicious conduct stops, and the police desire to give the parents warning that if their boys are out after the curfew they will be arrested and sent to the Reform school. At the present time Chief Conlisk has the names of over a dozen boys who have been reported for doing mischief, and unless the parents take their sons and punish them, and break them of such habits, the city official will do this duty for them.
